when He sentenced William Smith to one year in Jail for perjury, that he intended giving every person brough before him on the charge the maximum penalty. He said into the court might as well be aboilshed if the wholesale practice of false swearing was allowed to continue. Three witnesses and one of the prisoners who participated in a case in the Corporation Court yesterday, were arrested this embring, and will be tried for perjury. The case in question was one of highway robbery, and all three of the negroes were sentenced to the penitentiary.
